MESSAGES

Hon. Dr. Wykeham McNeill
Minister of Tourism and Entertainment

The most important mission of the Ministry of Tourism and Entertainment is to ensure that the benefits of our tourism sector are felt by the largest possible numbers of the Jamaican people throughout the island. This is why we continue a sharp focus on maximising income generation and job creation.

The Tourism Linkages Council is working tirelessly to ensure the tourism sector becomes better integrated with other sectors such as entertainment, agriculture and manufacturing. Our efforts are having measurable success as these sectors have built meaningful partnerships through networking events, like the 'Christmas in July' initiative, organised by the Linkages Hub in collaboration with the Jamaica Business Development Corporation and other partners. We will continue to ensure that our tourism sector maintains its pattern of the robust growth we have enjoyed over the past few years.

This catalogue is another tool that will make information on our wide variety of local products available not only to our local tourism sector but to the wider export market. I congratulate all the members of the Tourism Linkages Council and I look forward to even greater success moving forward.

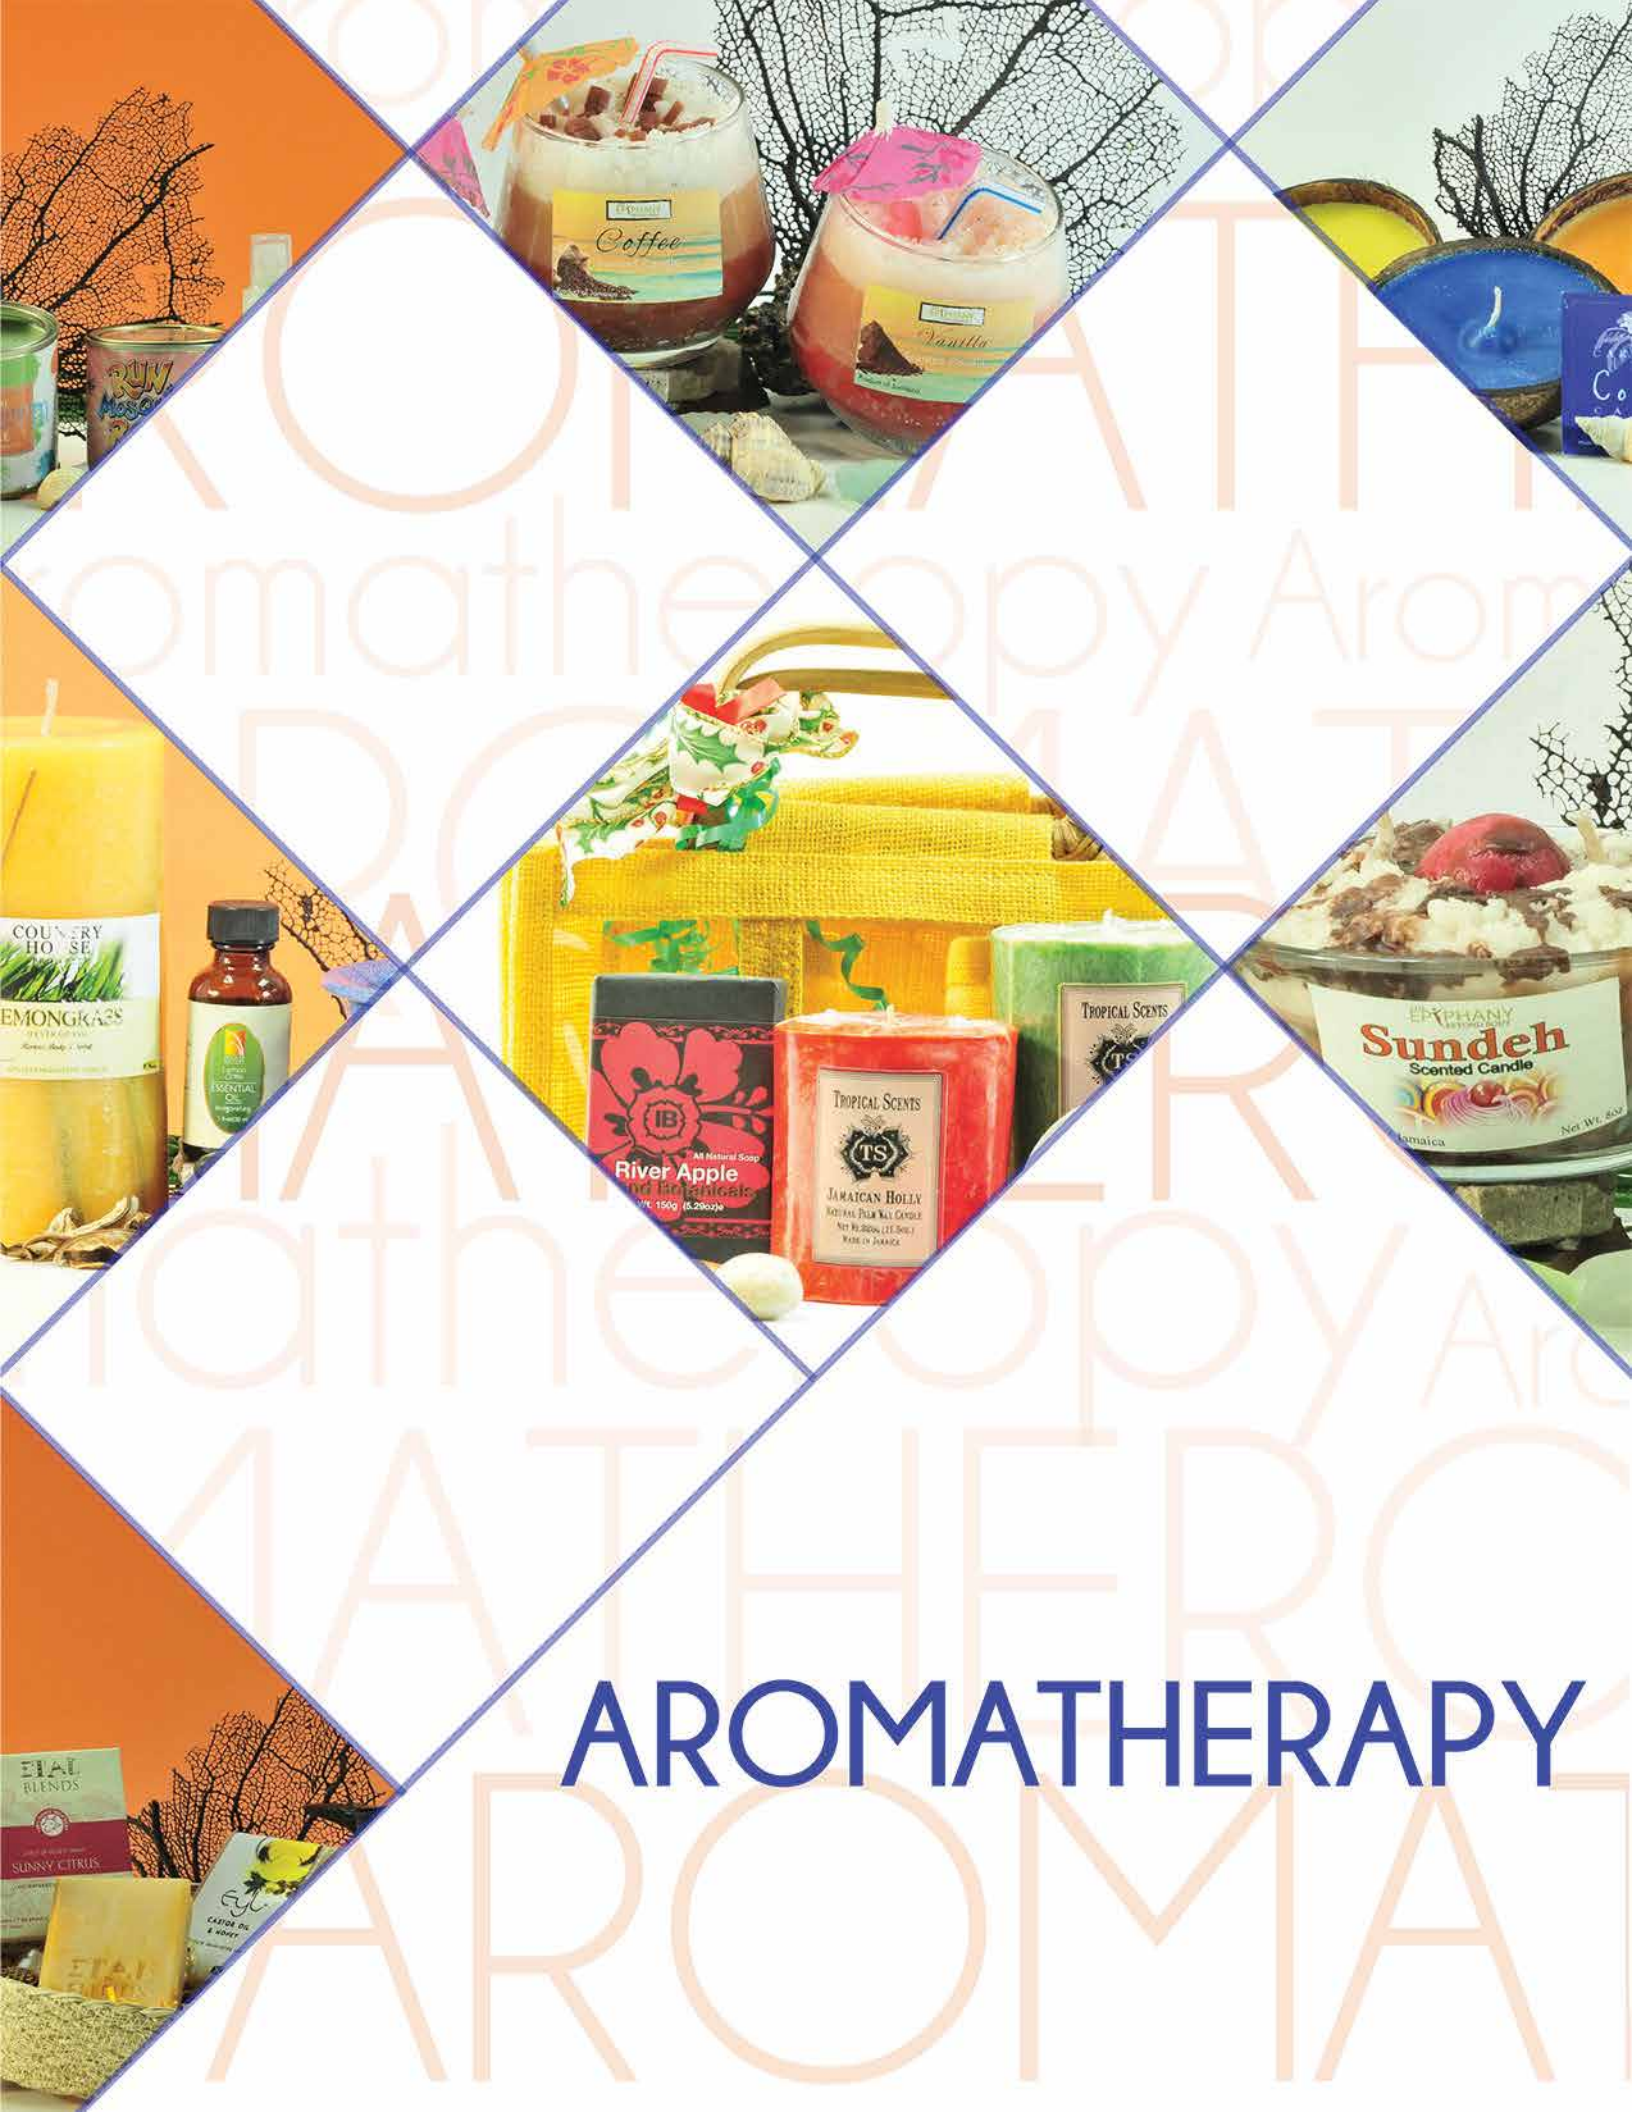

Hon. Anthony Hylton
Minister of Industry, Investment and Commerce

“Christmas in July, by providing an opportunity for suppliers to engage directly with clients in a managed environment, is invaluable to the growth of businesses. It is an opportunity for many to showcase the skills they have developed through various capacity building initiatives and feel a sense of empowerment. This, I believe, is critical for enterprises to move from being micro to small, and small to medium.”

Mr. Donavon Perkins
Chairman - Tourism Linkages Council

“Christmas in July is truly a ground-breaking initiative which provides well needed exposure to producers of a wide array of products and allows them to meet with potential buyers to explore business opportunities and hopefully seal numerous deals.”
